Case No. 3:11-cv-00938 WHA

JOINT MOTION OF DEFENDANTS AND

EXTEND DEADLINE UNDER

AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

20
21 By Order dated June 26, 2012 (Docket 53), the Court ordered that the Receivership

23 complete documentation, covering the period January 1, 2006 to the present, reflecting assets, bank
24 accounts, credit card accounts, funds received related to the conduct alleged in the Complaint,
25 expenditures over $1,000 and all transfers made, and file and serve tax returns from 2006 to 2011.
26 (Docket 53, Paragraphs 9, 10).

The Receivership Defendants are attempting to prepare the required statement and accounting and assemble the tax returns, but the information requested is voluminous and involves time periods as to which Defendants have been thus far been unable to gather or retrieve the relevant information and thus the Defendants need additional time to make these submissions.

In addition, the Receiver, John W. Cotton, Esq., who joins in this Motion, believes that Defendant Lawrence Goldfarb's time in the near term would best be spent assisting the Receiver, as he has been doing, in securing receivership assets.

Accordingly, Defendants and the Receiver request a thirty (30) day extension for the Receivership Defendants to make the submissions set forth in Paragraphs 9 and 10 of the Order.

The Receiver confirms that due to other more pressing work on the receivership, the Receiver will not be able to review the submissions for at least thirty days and accordingly this extension will not negatively impact his work or the receivership estate.

The Receiver has consulted counsel for the Plaintiff regarding this request and Plaintiff's counsel has indicated that the SEC does not oppose the requested extension.

DATED: July 24, 2012

Respectfully submitted,
